General Information about the Association

The First Constituent Conference of the Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories, 22 December 2004, Moscow, Russia

The Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories (AECSD) unites the central depositories of the CIS countries. The Association's mission is to develop and enhance depository operations, to create a common depository environment, and to integrate the central depositories of the CIS countries into a global securities settlement system.

Discussion of the issues of interactions between central depositories of the CIS countries began in 2001 in Tashkent at the international seminar "Integration of Depository Systems as the Basis for Efficient Interaction on International Securities Markets." At the event the professional participants of securities market were able for the first time to get acquainted with the level of development of the settlement systems and stock markets of the neighbor countries and to find ways of future cooperation. At that time many participants of the seminar pointed out the long felt need in establishing the partner relations between organizations, in integrating efforts aimed at improvement and harmonization of securities market legislation and in building efficient interactions between stock markets in general.

Later on, such seminars were held on an annual basis. In 2002 the meetings were held in Almaty, Kazakhstan, and Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, in 2003 the seminar was carried out in Baku, Azerbaijan. At the meetings the representatives of the CIS countries' central depositories were exchanging opinions on topical issues. Year by year the scale of the event became larger. The international conference focused on interaction of the CIS countries' central depositories held in Moscow in 2004 represented a new stage in the history of the meetings. The conference revealed that despite difference in levels of development of the stock markets in various CIS countries an issue of market integration was very important, that there was a real interest in harmonization of the countries' legal acts and in establishing of inter-depository relations. The participants of the conference made decision on formation of the Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories (AECSD).

On 22 December, 2004 the first (foundation) conference of the AECSD was carried out. It was organized by the Not-for-Profit Partnership "The National Depository Center" (Russia) and Depository Clearing Company CJSC. The conference's goals included signing the resolution on the AECSD establishment, formation of its governing bodies and development of its working programs.

The members of the Association include its founders and other participants joining the Association in compliance with the procedure provided by the Clause 5 of the Resolution.

The members of the Association include the following organizations:

National Depository Center CJSC

General Information

The National Depository Center of the Republic of Azerbaijan (NDC) was founded as a joint stock company on 18 September, 1997. After formation of the State Committee for Securities of the Republic of Azerbaijan (SCS) in 1999 NDC was reorganized; since that time it is wholly owned by SCS. The main activities of NDC comprise provision of the depository and registration services including registration of the ownership rights for securities, safekeeping and maintenance of the registers of joint stock companies. NDC is one of the founders of the AECSD. On 17 November, 2006 NDC concluded a global cooperation agreement with the Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA) and was appointed the National Numbering Agency of the Republic of Azerbaijan. NDC is a member of the International Securities Services Association (ISSA).

Ownership and Governing Bodies

100% shares are owned by SCS. The Chairman of SCS heads the NDC's Supervisory Council.

Regulatory Environment

The State Committee for Securities of the Republic of Azerbaijan (SCS) is a regulatory body for NDC.

Background

The term "National Depository System" has been introduced by the Program of Privatization of the State Property in the Republic of Azerbaijan for 1995-1998. According to the Program, the key tasks of the depository system included organization of securities safekeeping, provision of their turnover both in cash and non-cash form, maintenance of the share registries, registration of securities owners and sale and purchase agreements, as well as other depository services.

In order to advance and standardize the national depository system both the Regulations on National Depository System and Regulations on Registry keeping of newly formed joint stock companies and specialized voucher investment funds were adopted by the Presidential Decree dated 14 May, 1997. The Regulations on National Depository System implied the establishment of NDC. NDC was formed on 18 September, 1997. The State

Property Committee of the Republic of Azerbaijan was NDC's initial founder and its sole owner. After formation of the State Committee for Securities of the Republic of Azerbaijan (SCS) the shares of NDC have been passed to the latter. Therefore NDC was re-founded by SCS on 8 September, 1999 and received a state registration certificate on 17 September, 1999. NDC holds a license for depository and registry keeping operations issued by SCS.

Regulatory and Legal Framework

1. The Civil Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan
2. Depository Activities Standards (15 July, 2005)
3. Shareholders Registry Keeping Standards (15 February, 2005)
4. Other Regulations accepted by SCS.

Services Provided by NDC

- Safekeeping of physical and dematerialized securities
- Formation and maintenance of the joint stock companies registries
- Confirmation of the ownership rights for securities, registration of securities owners, registration of securities transactions
- Registration of encumbered securities
- Conversion, consolidation, split and other types of operations
- Organization of the general meetings of shareholders
- Calculation of dividend and transfer of dividend payments to the shareholders
- Information support
- Storage of valuables in safe deposit boxes

International Relations

In order to improve cooperation with depositories of the CIS countries, South Eastern Asia and Middle East NDC takes part in all conferences and seminars held by these countries.

NDC is a member of the following international associations:

- The Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories (AECSD)
- The Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA)
- The International Securities Services Association (ISSA)
- The Federation of Euro-Asian Stock Exchanges (FEAS)

NDC also cooperates with other international organizations including Clearstream Banking, Thomas Murray, SWIFT, and with the central depositories of Turkey, South Korea and China.

The Central Depository of Armenia OJSC

General Information

The Central Depository of Armenia OJSC (CDA):

- was founded on 10 January, 1996
- is a part of NASDAQ OMX, being a subsidiary of NASDAQ OMX Armenia
- comprises 18 members of C&S of stock exchange trades by corporate securities
- is the National Numbering Agency and a partner of the Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA)

Ownership and Governing Bodies

Since the moment of its establishment the Central Depository of Armenia (the CDA) changed its legal form in order to comply with the legislation regulating securities market in the country. For instance, in 1996-1999 the central depository was acting as a state company, and then it was re-organized as a close joint stock company. In August 2000 the RA Law “On Securities Market Regulation” came into effect, according to which the CDA became a self regulatory organization. Later on, after adoption of the new Law “On Securities Market” it was reorganized as an open joint stock company.

In early 2008 after merger of NASDAQ and OMX which led to formation of NASDAQ OMX Group, an international stock exchange operator, the NASDAQ OMX Group became an owner of CDA and Armenian Stock Exchange (currently NASDAQ OMX Armenia OJSC). Starting 5 June, 2009 NASDAQ OMX Armenia is the sole owner of CDA (in turn, NASDAQ OMX Armenia is wholly owned by NASDAQ OMX Group, Inc).

Regulatory Environment

The CDA’s activities are regulated by the RA Law “On Securities Market” dated 11 October, 2007 and regulations of the Central Bank of the Republic of Armenia (the CBA), the national financial regulator.

Along with the abovementioned legal and regulatory base, the CDA acts in accordance with its own rules approved by the company’s Supervisory Board and registered by the CBA. The Depository rules regulate all spheres of the company’s business and are being amended in line with improvement and automation of operations and introduction of new services.

Services Provided by the CDA

Core services provided by the CDA include:

- Centralized custody of securities
- Securities holders' registry keeping (including services related to corporate actions and securities placements)
- C&S of stock exchange trades by corporate securities
- Assigning ISINs

The number of the CDA's clients, both legal entities and individuals, is growing steadily. As of December 31, 2010, the number of registers maintained by the CDA amounted to 1,573 (against 1,527 registers in 2009 and 1,201 registers in 2008), and the number of depository accounts serviced was 157,410 (against 156,430 accounts in 2009 and 153,890 accounts in 2008).

International Relations

Since 2005 the CDA is a member of the Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories (AECSD). In line with its focus on expansion of international activities and switch to international servicing standards on 4 June, 2009, CDA became a partner of the Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA). Now it has right to assign ISIN codes to securities issued in Armenia. CDA cooperates with SWIFT as well and is a SWIFT user. In December 2010 CDA created correspondent relations with CSD of Kazakhstan by opening nominee account there.

Ukrainian Securities Depository Joint Stock Company

General Information

Ukrainian Securities Depository Joint Stock Company (AUSD) was established in 2008 by the National Bank of Ukraine and professional securities market participants. On 12th October, 2009 AUSD as a legal successor to Interregional Securities Union OJSC (IRSU), the depository founded in 1997, took up the latter's rights and liabilities and began providing depository, settlement and clearing services to IRSU's clients. The nominal value of depository assets transferred by IRSU to AUSD amounted to US$ 46 billion (including US$ 41 million denominated in foreign currency).

Today AUSD provides services to over 3,000 securities issuers and more than 300 custodians; it settles trades concluded on all Ukrainian stock exchanges. Majority of securities deals with cash settlement are based on information received from trade organizers with pre-depositing of securities and cash funds.

AUSD's interaction with custodians, trade organizers, the National Bank of Ukraine, leading registrars, issuers and correspondent depositories is performed with the help of EDI system. Authentication of documents with electronic digital signature guarantees data transmission safety.

Ownership and Governing Bodies

Ukrainian Securities Depository is a private joint stock company with UAH153.1 million authorized capital (an equivalent of US$19 million). The biggest shareholder of AUSD is the National Bank of Ukraine (22.86%). Other shareholders' stakes do not exceed 5% of the AUSD authorized capital. Among these shareholders are two state and 44 commercial banks (they jointly own 52.94% stake in AUSD), 25 financial and investment companies-broker/dealers(13.07%), four trade organizers (8.95%) and several other organizations (2.18%).

The General Meeting of Shareholders is the highest governing body of AUSD.

The AUSD Supervisory Board controls and regulates the activities of the Management Board in-between general meetings of shareholders. The Auditing Committee performs audit of the company's financial operations.

The Participants Council is the Supervisory Board's consultative body representing interests of the depository's participants (customers) and coordinating depository and clearing operations as well as AUSD's interaction with customers. The Council includes professional securities market participants (legal entities) that use AUSD's depository services.

The Management Board is authorized to supervise day-to-day operations.

International Relations

To this day, when the level of development of each country depends on its integration with global economic space, NDU maintains and develops partner relations with many foreign associations including depositories, professional associations, stock exchanges, rating agencies, and other organizations.

NDU is a member of the following associations:

- The Association of National Numbering Agencies (ANNA);
- The International Association of Exchanges of CIS Countries;
- Brussels International Bank Club;
- The Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories (AECSD).

In May 2010 NDU joined the European Central Securities Depositories Association (ECSDA). Being a member of this Association NDU is able to strengthen cooperation between Ukrainian and European depositories, to eliminate obstacles in the sphere of securities operations, and to speed up integration of Ukrainian stock market with international capital market.

NDU being the long term member of the Association of National Numbering Agencies, International Association of Exchanges of CIS Countries, Brussels International Bank Club, and the Association of Eurasian Central Securities Depositories traditionally takes part in the events held by these and other organizations for exchange in experience and newest financial technologies.

NDU pays special attention to analysis of global financial markets functioning and strives to comply with the established international standards. During 2009 NDU specialists were taking an active part in conferences, forums, summits and international round tables dedicated to the capital markets development issues. Participation in such forums allows NDU to follow the newest trends in global stock markets development and other countries' legislative and technological initiatives. It also allows NDU to demonstrate the peculiarities of the Ukrainian settlement and recordkeeping systems and to shed light on their outlook.
